

Alpha Omega Translations

Foreign Language Translation, Interpretation, and Desktop Publishing

Cutting Edge Legal Translation

Our legal translation services include the following 3 service areas

✓ Attorney Document Review

Have a large volume of foreign language documents that need translated for a case? Aren't sure if you need to translate some or all of them? Alpha Omega Translations can prevent you from wasting money on translating unnecessary documents. Our legal translators are available to review, analyze and code your foreign language documents, in connection with the litigation discovery process, due diligence projects, anti-trust "second requests" and other legal proceedings. So when you get that box of documents to review in German, Italian, Chinese, French, Japanese, Korean, Spanish or any other language, call us!

✓ Document Translation

Alpha Omega Translations understands that accuracy is critical when you're translating legal documents, no matter what the language. That's why our team of experienced translators pays such careful attention to the use of legal terminology, which can be so difficult to translate from one language (and legal system) to another. We translate legal documents such as contracts, patent applications, articles of incorporation, corporate reports, birth/marriage/death certificates, tax returns, wills, deeds, testimony transcripts, pleadings, judgments, formal opinions, expert reports and evidentiary documents such as correspondence, memoranda, e-mails, bank/financial statements and medical records.

✓ Interpretation Services

We provide qualified interpreters for federal court cases, depositions, client meetings, tele-conferences and other events.

Alpha Omega Translations

Foreign Language Translation, Interpretation, and Desktop Publishing

✓ We provide the following services in over 100 foreign languages

Document review, translation, editing/proofreading, interpreting for depositions, litigation support, patent translations, patent litigation exhibits, summons & complaints, evidentiary & financial documents, judicial proceedings, foreign statutes, and contracts.

We specialize in highly technical translation, interpretation, and desktop publishing in all major languages. We provide quality service, with broad technical and literary translation experience, native ability in the target languages, and expert computer skills. With more than 35 years of experience, we specialize in the following areas: health, medical, development, legal, patents, engineering, energy, audio-visual, aerospace, chemical, economics, political, science, maritime, military, weaponry, computers, human resources, marketing, environment, business, financial, telecommunications, bio-technology, agriculture, etc.

Established in 1998, we are one of the nation's most competitive language services providers. We are a small, woman-owned business with a HubZone certification and with a large clientele of government and private sector organizations.

Our customers turn to us because of our proven commitment to providing high-quality, cost-effective translations on-time, every time!

Alpha Omega Translations is a proud member of the American Translators Association, the US Chamber of Commerce, the Washington D.C. Chamber of Commerce.

